EIGHTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

We inesday, the eighth annual conference of The King's Daughters of Windham, New London and Tolland counties was held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Church street, with about 100 members in attendance, There were morning and afternoon sessions, Miss Lucy Geer of Norwich, secretary for New London county, presiding. After a short devotional service left by Rev. Louis M. Flocken, pastor of the Local church, a welcome was extended by him and the local circles of The King's Daughters to the visiting Daughters, Mrs. L. O. Potter of ery circle in the three counties was represented by delegates. The various committees, including resolutions, the committee on place for next conference, etc., were thep appointed by the meeting. My Faith Looks Up to Thee was sung, following which, Mrs. E. K. Smiley of Hartford, a member of the central council, gave an interesting talk on "Gthers." The chief thought of her remarks was that each should live for others, endeavoring to make everyone's life better, brighter and happier.

The different circles through their representatives reported on the past Three Babbit Brothers Sentenced.

Andrew Babbit, Clifford Babbit and Carl Babbit, three brothers, charged with statutory burglary, whe had pleaded not guilty when brought before the court Tuesday morning, were again in court and announced that they were willing to change their plea to guilty. The older ones, Andrew and Carl, were charged with breaking into four places and stealing some property therefrom. Clifford, who is a minor, pleaded guilty to one charge and the other two were noiled. Attorney Charles A. Capen of this city, who had been appointed guardian ad litem and attorney for the boy, agreed to his pleading guilty and receiving one year in the county jail. State's Attorney Searles said to the court that he felt that Clifford might reform, and recommended to the court the one year in jail which was im-Mrs I. W. Sneath of New Haven, state secretary, next gave an address on Worthy to Fellow the King. She alluded to the fact that the first decalluded to the fact that the first dec-ade of the twentieth century had been called the most spiritual of any age but she did not quite agree, claiming that people were not willing to as-sume the work of Sunday, preferring to for away for the week-end instead; that they did not care to lead in pray-er, and that they were also pleasure-med. The speaker thought it high time that the King's Daughters assume every responsibility in all of these things. She continued by urging all to make themselves worthy to follow the King by bringing some to Christ, as the high ideals of the order were not only to feed and clothe people that were in need, but to give them spiritual life as well.

Miss H. I. Eaton, state treasurer, of Hartford, explained the different kinds of Herature of the order.

Dinner was then served by the ladles of the local circles in the church parlors. and should get state prison as punishment. Attorney Samuel B. Harvey, who had been assigned to defend them, said to the court that he did not care to say anything in their behalf. Both brothers were then sentenced, to not less the none year and not more than brothers were then sentenced, to not less than one year and not more than two years on the first count, which was the breaking into the store of Frank G. Letters of Puinam.

On each of the other three counts they were given not more than one year in the state prison, each sentence to follow the preceding one. The two accused, after receiving a sentence of several years in the state prison, did not show any feeling of sorrow; on the other hand, as they were being led to the prisoners pen they whispered to each other and smiled.

The jury had been called in to hear and pass upon the evidence in these cases, which had been set for trial on Wednesday. As the accused had pleaded guilty and saved the trouble of a trial, the jurors were excused until this (Thursday) morning, when the case of the state against Vincent Lombardo of this city will be taken up. Lombardo is charged with assault with intent to murder Philip O. Pagano of this city on April 11, 1909. Lombardo, it is claimed by the state, slashed Pe-Mrs. I. W. Sneath. The place for the next conference was settled by choosing Jewett City and the date will be some time in May of next year.

The report of the resolution committee was accepted, there being one expressing thanks for the kindness of the entertaining circles. The hymn of the order, Lead as We Go, was sung, after which adjournment was taken. this city on April 11, 1909. Being a man of good health, he was able to pull through, but will carry to the grave a large and ugly looking scar. Lombardo escaped from the city at the time and Captain Richmond of the Willimantic police department kept up the search for the man until within a few weeks ago, when he located him in the city of Boston. He notified the Boston police of Lombardo's whereabouts and they arrested him. Lombardo denies his guilt in the matter and relatives have retained a Boston attorney who will appear for him in court and conduct the defense. Wednesday moring in police court before Judge William A. Arnold the cases of James A. Casey, Florence Sullivan and Lawrence Welch, charged with sleeping in an outhouse, that were continued from Tiesusy, were taken up. When put to plea Tuesday Sullivan pleaded not guilty and the others guilty. Officer McArthur testified that they were found asleep in the hay about 9.30 o'clock Monday evening and about 9.30 o'clock Monday evening and all showed signs of having been drinking. He had been informed that they had been in the barn on Jackson street quite often and he had gone there on complaint of Mr. Haddad, who leased a part of the barn from Eli Blanchette. Mr. Blanchette stated that he rented a part of his barn to Mike Haddad, and that he did not want anyone to sleep of the barn. Sullivan worked for him a while ago, and at that time he had given him permission to sleep in the barn. Since that time he had not seen Sullivan to tell him to keep out of the barn. Judge Arnold found that Sullivan was not guilty, but in the cases of the two others he sentenced Welch to 15 days in tall and Grant Statistics.

The body of Roselle L. Holt, who died last February in Mansfield, and which has been in the vault in the storrs cemetery, was removed Wednesday by Funeral Director H. N. Fenn and sent from this city on the 9.45 a. m. train to Dover, Mass., for burial.

The brick "block" that is being erected in the alley between the Fuller building and the Holmes block on Main street is being pushed forward with all possible speed and will within a few days be near completion. It is understood that Messrs. Chesbro and Holmes have leased the store to be situated therein to an out of town firm of Greek shoe-shining artists for an up to date establishment. The figure for the rental is said to be $900 per year.

Sarah J. Lambert, colored, of Hampton, considered by State's Attorney Charles E. Searles as "one of those infortunate products of which society has so many," was sentenced to five months in the county jail Wednesday morning by Superior Court Jüdge Maltor A. Shumway of Danielson. The woman had been arrested on a bench warrant, charged with perjury in the case of the state vs. Ephraim Dorous of Hampton, charged with manslaughter in the matter of the death of Charles Neff of Hampton, who was found dead at the Dorous-Lambert home. When brought before the superior court in Putnam the woman had pleaded not guilty to the charge. Wednesday morning she changed her pleato guilty. State's Attorney Searles in addressing the court said that the woman had deliberately lied in the case, which had resulted in the acquittal of Dorous. She had been most probably instrumental in the miscarriage of justice and furthermore had Bleycle and Automobile Repairing Oil and Gasoline for sale, New and Up-to-date Hotel to ever IRA E.
